

Whether you're hosting an elegant dinner party for a visiting CEO, a black tie wedding for a hundred, or a corporate event for thousands, ELM Concierge delivers distinctive event planning and consultation services with a boutique attention to detail.

Our extensive inventory and access to a range of superb caterers, chefs and service people allow us to jump in to organize or support your event even at the 11th hour.

ELM will hire the appropriate service staff and caterers or work with your favorites; locate and acquire the right venue or event site; and coordinate and plan all the other necessary elements* for your special occasion from décor to dessert. We act as the liaison between you and the event staff, making sure your wishes are clearly communicated and executed. So all you have to do is show up, enjoy yourself and be the perfect host. Even if you hire us at the last minute to "fix" a problem or replace a planner gone AWOL, we'll step in with our extensive personnel and resources to immediately create a stress-free process and beautifully-run event.

We enjoy working with individuals and businesses, as well as company representatives in corporate public relations or marketing to translate our clients' wishes into extraordinary event experiences. Known for reliability, exceptional service and market-leading prices, ELM Concierge focuses on customer satisfaction in every aspect of our work.
